

Heather Green - SEN Specialist Leader in Education - Liss Junior School, Heather leads and manages The Learning Centre and is the school SENCo. She has been a teacher for 17 years and a SENCo for 13 years and can offer a wide range of experience of the everyday realities of leading SEND within a mainstream school. She is able to support colleagues by using coaching or facilitation work that will contribute to improving outcomes for all children and broaden professional development of staff members. She is supporting a local secondary school, in developing their differentiation strategies to enhance pupil progress. Her role as a Specialist Leader in Education enables her to share her enthusiasm and passion for inspirational practice across our schools.

Claire Gudgeon - Head of Humanities and Learning-to-Learn at Ormiston Six Villages Academy. Leading the large Humanities department and the competency based curriculum, Claire is involved in coaching/mentoring for best practice to overcome a range of barriers including improving the lesson design and behaviour management and intervention. Claire is leading Teaching and Learning Communities (TLC's) that deliver bespoke CPD. This is to encourage systematic reflections on pedagogical practice and intervention, tracking success linked to targeted outcomes. Claire has also been a County Lead Teacher for Humanities.

Louise Harris - an experienced Director of PE, Bourne Community College. Louise is leading a team on a new journey, by making changes to improve student motivation, refresh AFL, improve teaching and learning and to increase the importance of physical activity within the school. Previous to this role, Louise has delivered INSETs to middle leaders on assessment and how to track progress across the school. This increased her involvement in transition between Key Stage 2 to 3. Currently she is investigating Learning Walks, and how subject leader can use intervention to improve teaching and learning.

Angela Smith - Head of RE, Bishop Luffa and RE Consultant for Chichester Diocese. Angela is an experienced Team Leader and former Head of Humanities, with a breadth of experience—from being 'one specialist' with non-specialist staff to leading a large RE team. Angela is an experienced Mentor for Resilience project 2010-11 (National Strategy) to support secondary schools in teaching about contentious issues, and has developed and led countywide support and network groups. Her MA research focused on variation in examination results in RE.

Mel Walton - Assistant Principal for Teaching and Learning at The Regis School. Mel is an experienced Consultant, Partner Development Manager and Director of Specialism (Sport). Her Masters research focused on the use of a dog in a secondary school to promote literacy and behaviour. In school, her current work is concentrated on the use of Lesson Study as a model for teacher development, a consistent, school wide, approach to marking, and the creation of a Teaching and Learning App as a tool for sharing practice.
